

In the Community

SGT Congratulates our Latest Small Business Supplier Award Recipient

Congratulations to Jensen Machine Company for being recognized by Siemens Government Technologies, Inc. (SGT) at the Siemens USA Small Business Supplier Award Luncheon held on May 23rd in Cary, NC.

Jensen has provided SGT's Dresser-Rand plant in Wellsville, New York with over 65 years of dedicated service, supplying an assortment of bearings for commercial and U.S. Navy ships. Jensen's responsiveness, flexibility and dedication to excellent customer performance are why they are an SGT Certified Key Supplier.

In the Community

How Siemens and STEM are Inspiring the Future of Flight

SGT's President and CEO Barbara Humpton had the privilege of spending a day with four impressive young people as they began building a real live plane based on their own design! Bryant Castro, Michael Gomez,

In the Community

Amber McCutcheon and Kodee Scott, all of Olney High School in Olney, Texas, beat out 92 other teams from 31 states to win the 2017 General Aviation Manufacturers Association (GAMA) Build A Plane Aviation Design Challenge of which Siemens was a sponsor.

Find out more about these impressive future innovators at the Siemens Executive Blog.